Distinguished Major Program (DMP) Requirements - 2 Additional Courses DMPs must complete 12 courses post-high school (that is, AP credit does not count as one of these 12 courses; neither does SPAN 3010, Grammar & Composition I) For additional information about the program, please visit http://www.spanitalport.virginia.edu/spanish-dmp. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 11. 4980 DMP Colloquium (taken Fall 4th year as Credit/No Credit; 3 hrs with Ms. Weber as the instructor) 12. 4989 DMP Thesis (taken Spring 4th year as Graded Option; your thesis advisor is the instructor)

- SPAN 3300 must be taken at UVa or through a recommended study abroad program. It must be completed before continuing to survey or literature courses.
- Completing one survey course is a prerequisite for taking any 4000-level literature or culture course. Ideally a major will take both surveys before advancing to a 4000-level course in literature or culture.
- Fourth-year majors may not take a survey course; they must substitute a 4000-level literature course instead. The substitute course must be in the same area as the survey being replaced (e.g. a Latin American literature course for a Latin American literature survey or a Spanish literature course for a Spanish literature survey).
- AP Language exam: Students with a score of 4 should proceed to 3010. Students with a score of 5 place out of 3010 and may not take it for credit; they may proceed to any of the following: SPAN 3000, 3020, 3030, 3031, 3032, 3040, 3200 or 3300.
- AP Literature exam: Students with a score of 4 or 5 place out of 3300 and may not take it for credit; they may take any SPAN course at the 3000 level, EXCEPT 3010 and 3300. Students who are placed out of SPAN 3300 must still earn 30 credits of upper-division Spanish to complete the major, substituting another literature course for SPAN 3300.
- Only one conversation course can count toward the major. Conversation classes are closed to native speakers.
- Course exceptions must be approved by the student's Major Advisor AND the Director of Undergraduate Programs.
